

Young Person's Advisory Group

The Mayor of West Yorkshire and the Deputy Mayor for Policing and Crime want you to join their Youth Advisory Group which:

- Gives young people a more active say about how they are policed in West Yorkshire.
- Provides opportunities to take part in new initiatives and improve and enhance relationships between young people and the Police.
- Promotes a better understanding of West Yorkshire Police and its operations.

Youth Advisory Group

A voice for young people
Keeping communities safer together

What are group members expected to do?

- Contribute time, energy and commitment.
- Share their personal knowledge, awareness and experience of community issues within the group.
- Provide advice to us to help the Mayor and Deputy Mayor for Policing and Crime improve policing and make sure people are safe.

Do group members need any special skills?

No, we will provide any appropriate training.

Do group members get paid?

No, this is voluntary work however travel expenses will be paid.
