

2024-25 Summary

Impact

Panel findings are delivered directly by the Chair after each deliberation to West Yorkshire Police senior custody police officers who attend every meeting.

Those officers provide feedback on any action taken with the relevant custody team at the following meeting.

Scrutiny and accountability

The Deputy Mayor for Policing and Crime (DMPC) meets with Custody Detention Scrutiny Panel Members annually to discuss finding themes and issues.

Significant matters and concerns are brought immediately to the attention of the DMPC. The Chair has direct access to the DMPC.
